

BLU TATTOO

Artist Bio:

Denise Charles, also known as BLU, is a versatile visual artist with a broad range of skills, including tattooing, painting, illustration, and digital design. Her unique ability to combine various mediums results in thought-provoking and captivating artwork. BLU specializes in painting vibrant portraits on a diverse range of surfaces and has collaborated with both large corporations and local startups to help build their brands.

As she puts it, "I am the imagination creator, I can create anything...on anything...with anything." BLU draws inspiration from her passion for hip hop, pan-Africanism, and alchemy, which influences her innovative approach to color blending and striking visual concepts. Her style sets her apart from other artists, making her a visual communicator across various platforms and a true creative force.

In her own words, "I am on a quest to tap into the universal elixir....a seemingly magical process of transformation and creation, interpreted and shared from a hip-hop perspective." -BLU
